Waving her magical wand, Libbii Armstrong empowers her multi-passionate clients to turn their mayhem into money. As a Spiritual Business Witch and Intuitive Coach, she fuses practical magic with spiritual magic using Quantum Human Design, witchery, psycho-energy tools, and business strategy.

Libbii is also the Head Witch at The Collective Witchery where she runs The Spell Of The Month Club - a monthly digital spellbook subscription – and an online boutique of handcrafted witchy goodies. She is a summit host and has led dozens of workshops and transformational retreats to help spiritual creatives make quantum leaps and bounds in their lives and businesses.

Libbii has studied under entrepreneurial thought leaders like Gabrielle Bernstein and Selena Soo and holds certifications in a variety of coaching, business, and healing modalities. She has appeared on ABC4 Utah, The Empress Festival, Spiritual Business Spotlight, Thrive Global, Elephant Journal, numerous summits and podcasts, is an Amazon author, and the author of the forthcoming book, Bad Vibe Slayer.

She is also the co-creator of a successful line of handcrafted leather accessories and understands the nuances of running a creative handmade business with a spouse or partner.

An immigrant from South Africa, Libbii is living out her American Dream traveling the USA with her husband, parrot, and cats.
